

2020-21 FESTUS HS BAND LETTER REQUIREMENTS

Students that earn a letter for participation in the FHS Band program will have to demonstrate dedication, commitment, and responsibility both in and out of the classroom. To letter in band means that student has fulfilled all criteria listed and is in good standing with the school. Lettering is intended to reward and recognize those students that attend all band functions, particularly those held outside the normal school day. Lettering recognizes the extra-curricular nature of the FHS Band and the commitment to excellence that the student makes for the band.

ALL students MUST meet the following criteria in order to letter:

1. Be a member of Band both first semester AND second semester.
2. Maintain academic eligibility and remain in good standing according to all MSHSAA and Festus R-6 policies.
3. Participate in District Band auditions in the fall semester AND/OR District Music Festival solo/small ensemble event in the spring semester.
4. Maintain an “A” or “B” grade in the ensemble.
5. Have no conduct or discipline issues within the band or school.
6. Participate in every required performance for each ensemble they belong to. (Excused absences must be cleared with the director prior to the performance and written notification of the situation must be on record).
7. Participate in all required pep band performances.
8. Acquire the minimum number of participation points for band and school activities.

Students with special circumstances will be reviewed on an individual basis by the director(s) involved.
